UPCHURCH, GEO. W. DAVIS, A. M. SOR-RELL, and A. D. JONES.

VOTE IN FIVE BOXES.

There will be five boxes at each polling place on election day, and it is the duty of every good citizen to put a straight Democratic ticket in every box.
They are:

1. One box for the judicial ticket-- for Judges and Solicitor.
2. One box for Congressman.
3. One box for members of the Legislature.
4. One box for county officers.
5. One box for constable.

WHAT RADICAL RULE MEANS.

The next Legislature redistricts the Congressional Districts of North Carolina, and by gerrymander, the State will lose certainly half, probably three fourths, of her Congressmen--and this means endorsement of Speaker Reed-- and of the odious Force Bill--and of the stabs of Northern Congressmen, during the present Congress, at Southern industries.

Webster's Weekly truly says that in the campaign the Republican party made great promises to the people. Some of the promises of its platform the Republican party has kept, while others it has willfully and shamefully violated. Those which were for the benefit of the North and West have been carried out, but those which would have helped the South have been deliberately falsified.

Let Democrats beware of the Republican candidates who say they do not favor the Force bill. The Republican party in its convention cordially endorsed it, and every one who is not in favor of it, cannot consistently remain a Republican any longer, and hence a candidate of that party is in favor of it or he is trying to deceive you.--Alamance Gleas-ner.

The Force bill allows the supervisors to make a house to house canvass in the districts. This is an invasion of a man's home that is unwarranted and against the spirit of our government. An American's home is his castle, and any law that invades it is in the direction of taking away his liberties. Every man who votes the Republican ticket endorses this invasion of a man's home.

Mr. BEDDINGFIELD is greatly concerned about the success of the Democratic Judicial ticket, and urges every patriot to go to the polls and vote for it and defeat the Republican ticket headed by Capt. CHAS. PRICE, a railroad lawyer.-- Lenoir Topic.

VOTE, brother vote; vote with care; vote as you are told by the supervisors.
That is the way it will be if the Force bill passes.--Lenoir Topic.

THE RADICAL PROGRAMME.

(Washington Republican.)

When through the operation of the Lodge National Election law six or seven Southern States shall discard Democratic rule, we shall look confidently to see some measure of justice done the blacks who have been so long defrauded of their rights.

Heavy taxes should be laid upon the property of the whites to develop and extend the public school system in those States, SEPARATE SCHOOLS FOR THE TWO RACES SHOULD BE ABOL-ISHED, AND THE PLAN OF BRING-ING THE YOUTH OF BOTH COLORS INTO CLOSE AND EQUAL RELA-TIONS IN SCHOOLS AND CHURCHES GIVEN A FAIR TRIAL, as one of the most potent elements to break down the detestable Bourgeoisism of the South. The right of the black to bear arms should be guaranteed to him, as well as all the social rights intended to be secured him by the passage of the 14th and 15th Amendments to the Constitution. THE STATE LAWS AGAINST THE INTERMARRIAGE OF THE RACES SHOULD BE REPEALED, and any discriminations against the blacks in the matter of learning trades or obtaining employment should be made a criminal offence, while the colored man's right to hold office should be sacredly protected and recognized. A few years of this policy will solve the race problem satisfactorily.

A TELLING OBJECT LESSON.

(Morganton Herald.)

Talking about tin, we are constantly reminded of the McKinley Tariff Bill.
We have had occasion to mention this bill before, as our readers may remember. We shall probably mention it again in the course of time. Just now our attention is directed to it by a building that is being erected within sight of our office windows. It is the new Methodist parsonage, and being within the fire limits, must be built of brick and covered with tin or slate. The building committee decided to cover the building with tin, because they believed it would be cheapest. The tin was ordered and yesterday they received the invoice for the roofing. And what do you suppose is the difference in the cost of the roof on that one building now and what it would have been the first of October?
Why the tin for that one building costs fifty-two dollars more now than then, and there is not a pound of tin made in America. The Methodists of Morganton are paying fifty-two dollars more for Welsh tin to cover their building than they would have paid before the McKINLEY bill passed, not to protect any American tin manufacturers but just in order to make them quit buying tin roofing, and go to buying iron roofing at a higher price. This is a case in point, not away off in Maine or Washington, but right here at home, and if you are inclined to doubt it, you can find out for yourself. It does look unreasonable, but the figures won't lie.

McKINLEY CALLS FOR HELP.

(New York Herald.)

Mr. McKINLEY has one all consuming anxiety in these days. He thought to immortalize himself by a supreme act of folly, after the manner of the silly boy who fired the Ephesian dome, but he now discovers that his constituents are wondering whether it is worth while to send him back to Congress.

He is timidly balancing himself on the slippery rim of the political soup tureen with a desperate fear that he may fall in.

He has called on his friends to come from all quarters of the Union to lend a helping hand and save him from the fate he deserves. His cry is one of agony and despair.

After so much work, which has resulted in making every necessary of life dearer to the laboring man; after having laid an unnecessary tax on every yard of carpet and on every pew cushion in every village church throughout the land, he stands aghast at the ingratitude of the American people. Where are the rich monopolists whom his infamous bill permits to rob the people of their hard earned dollars? Why don't they come forward and show their interest in their protector? Why don't they cry out generously? The least they can do is to give him money enough to buy up the votes of the poor folk who are to be taxed for their benefit.

McKINLEY will probably pull through by the skin of his teeth. The Republicans have a way of demanding a fair count, and a fair count means the right to count their man in and the other fellow out. That is what they did in Washington when they ousted VANDER-BILT and gave his seat to LANGSTON. It was simply a party vote controlled by no more sense or justice than a fox has when he visits a hen roost after dark.

Mr. McKINLEY will live, we hope, for many years. If he does he will learn to look on the bill that bears his name as the most un-American bit of legislation ever recorded. He has played into the hands of the monopolists and played out of the hands of every wage earner in the Union.

The people are restlessly awaiting the additional burdens he imposes, but by and by this whole protective nonsense will be taken by the scruff of the neck and hurled into outer darkness, for the good and sufficient reason that instead of protecting, it ruins.

The State Governments after the war fell into the hands of the MOST DISREPUTA-BLE GANG OF THIEVES AND PLUNDERERS THAT EVER DISGRACED A NATION, AND THE VERY NAME OF REPUBLICANISM BE-CAME A STENCH IN THE NOSTRILS OF ALL HONEST MEN.--H. G. Ewart, Radical candidate for Congress in the Ninth District.

McIVER AT HOME.

The Chatham Record, published at Prof. McIVER's home, says that after diligent enquiry it has failed to find a single Democrat in Chatham County who will vote for McIVER for Congress.
It adds:

If there be such a peculiar person-- such a strange animal--in Chatham we would like to have him preserved in alcohol and sent to the RECORD'S museum.
Indeed we are so confident that such a monstrosity does not exist, that we hereby offer a reward of five dollars (in Confederate currency) for the photograph of any democrat in Chatham county who will vote for John Williamson's candidate!

The Radical party by endorsing the Force bill, says the people can't be trusted to hold their own elections. The man who votes the Radical ticket endorses this theory.

KNOCK DOWN QUESTIONS.

They Disclose The False Position of the Republican Orators.
(From an Account in Patriot of Joint Discussion in Guilford County.)

One of Mr. Bynum's (the Radical candidate for the State Senate) perversions of the truth was this: He claimed that England and the Democratic party stood alone in the world as the advocates of free trade. He then read a letter written a Charleston paper by a Democrat, portraying the penury and wretchedness of the English peasantry. Then with a flourish of his long arms, he proceeded in the manner of prophets of old to attribute all this to English free trade and to prophesy similar calamities to America should she adopt the same policy.

At this juncture Prof. M. H. Holt asked him to state to the audience if the peasantry of Germany, of France, or Italy countries which have a Protective Tariff were in any better condition than those of England. To this he could make no reply, and one hundred and twenty-five Democrats roared till you could have heard them a mile. He tried to tell what all the Republicans had done to save the country. At this juncture the Prof. asked him to tell the audience what they had done with the "surplus." Again the audience roared.
Again Mr. Bynum's feathers fell. He could rally no more. Another question or two was asked him by Prof. J. A.
Holt, and in no instance could he make reply. Such a misleading speech would never be delivered to an intelligent audience. He did not expect any help from that class. It is only another illustration of the fact that but for the darkest kind of ignorance and the meanest kind of prejudice, the Republican party in North Carolina would not live a week.

The white registration in Mark's Creek township is 47 more than the colored registration.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

The New Tariff Law, which went into effect October 6th, will, of course, result in an advance in the prices on foreign goods of all descriptions.

Anticipating its passage, we naturally availed ourselves of all our facilities, and in the interest of our patrons purchased largely abroad of those goods in our line most affected by the tariff, bringing forward the goods in time to escape the higher duties.

In consequence of the unsettled state of the markets, because of the uncertainty, we made all our purchases with great advantage, and all were gotten in before the higher duties went into effect.

Consequently for the next few months our enormous stock will offer great advantages to buyers, as the benefits secured by us shall be turned over to our customers.

In no case shall we, while the present large stock lasts, mark the goods at any advance based on present cost, but give our customers every advantage of our careful preparation, always realizing that their interest and our own are identical.
